Terms of participation for training courses and seminars

Application

Use the application form overleaf in order to apply. On receipt of your application we will immediately confirm, enclosing any further documentation. We require your application approx. 4 weeks prior to the start of the seminar.

Cancellation

Should we receive a written cancellation from you up to 14 days prior to the start of the seminar, 25% of the fee will be invoiced to you. If you cancel later than this date up to the start of the seminar you will be invoiced for the full costs of the seminar. You will receive a credit note from us for 75% of these costs when you reapply for a seminar provided it takes place within the following 6 months. There will be no further costs should a substitute be named instead.

We reserve the right to cancel venues for organisational reasons, e.g. too few participants. Should we cancel you will be refunded the fees paid, further claims are excluded. In the event of a venue not taking place due to circumstances beyond our control or other unforeseen events any entitlement to holding the venue is excluded. In such cases IT GmbH is not under obligation to refund travel or accommodation expenses or expenses entailed due to loss of working days.

Seminar documentation

Seminar documentation will be issued by IT GmbH. The costs thereof are included in the fee.

Under no circumstances may seminar documentation or software be duplicated for use before, during or after the seminar.

Payment of fees

The seminar fees are due in full 14 days following receipt of the invoice to be transferred to the account specified on the invoice.

Accommodation and board

Accommodation and full board is included in the seminar price in so far as this is expressly stated in the respective seminar description. Otherwise, at your request, information on hotels and boarding houses at the venue location may be provided. We kindly request you to make your own room reservations!
